British people enjoy participating in outdoor activities. The national favourite is, of course, football.

The public take pleasure from not only playing football but also watching it at stadiums and on television. Indeed, it is one of Britain's favourite conversation topics.

The game is liked by both young and old, and families often go to weekend matches to support their local teams. This provides an opportunity for the family to spend quality time together.

Chopsticks

SAMPLE STIMULUS

Chopsticks are very important in the daily life of the Chinese. Chinese people have been using chopsticks for more than 3,000 years.

Chopsticks can be made of different materials. Bamboo and wooden chopsticks are the most popular ones used in Chinese homes. However, in restaurants they are mainly made of plastic or are disposable.

Usually people do not put chopsticks upright into a bowl because it is a custom used only in offerings to the dead.

If you are really interested in chopsticks, you may want to visit the Chopstick Museum in Shanghai. The museum has over 1,000 pairs of chopsticks.

Healthy Eating

SAMPLE STIMULUS

Many people think that the Chinese diet is a healthy one. Chinese people are very concerned about their eating habits and about how these affect their health.

A typical Chinese diet, which includes a lot of vegetables, fish and meat, is basically healthy. In the last 10 years, people have begun to eat more fruit, believing in the English saying, “an apple a day, keeps the doctor away”.

The majority of Chinese are not vegetarian but some are through personal choice or because of their religion.

去年秋天，英國文化委員會和匯豐銀行在倫敦舉辦了第四屆講普通話比賽的活動，中國大使館很支持這活動。

全英國有40多所中學的近200名學生參加了這次比賽。參賽學生的母語必須不是漢語。

一位14歲的蘇格蘭男孩用流利的漢語說：「去年暑假我去了上海，回到英國後，再去上海成了我的一個夢。我把每天送報所得的錢積蓄起來，準備再去上海。我已經決定，那裏就是我的未來。」

一位非洲裔的女學生在演講中說：「我喜歡說漢語，像唱歌。」

一等獎的獎品是去中國的往返機票；二等和三等獎的獎品都是由中國大使館贈送的。

C Sample mark schemes

General marking guidance	73
Unit 1: Spoken Expression and Response in Chinese	75
Unit 2: Understanding and Written Response	77
Unit 3: Understanding, Written Response and Research	97

General Marking Guidance

- All candidates must receive the same treatment. Examiners must mark the first candidate in exactly the same way as they mark the last.
- Mark schemes should be applied positively. Candidates must be rewarded for what they have shown they can do rather than penalised for omissions.
- Examiners should mark according to the mark scheme not according to their perception of where the grade boundaries may lie.
- There is no ceiling on achievement. All marks on the mark scheme should be used appropriately.
- All the marks on the mark scheme are designed to be awarded. Examiners should always award full marks if deserved, i.e. if the answer matches the mark scheme. Examiners should also be prepared to award zero marks if the candidate's response is not worthy of credit according to the mark scheme.
- Where some judgement is required, mark schemes will provide the principles by which marks will be awarded and exemplification may be limited.
- When examiners are in doubt regarding the application of the mark scheme to a candidate's response, the team leader must be consulted.
- Crossed out work should be marked UNLESS the candidate has replaced it with an alternative response.
- Mark schemes will indicate within the table where, and which strands of QWC, are being assessed. The strands are as follows:
 - i) ensure that text is legible and that spelling, punctuation and grammar are accurate so that meaning is clear
 - ii) select and use a form and style of writing appropriate to purpose and to complex subject matter
 - iii) organise information clearly and coherently, using specialist vocabulary when appropriate

Unit 1: Spoken Expression and Response in Chinese

Mark	Content and understanding (AO2)
0	No understanding. No rewardable content.
1-4	Demonstrates minimal comprehension of basic questions and gives minimal responses.
5-8	Responses restricted. Answers invariably limited, short and hesitant. Opinions limited.
9-12	Responds well to stimulus but experiences problems with more complex demands. Responses rarely expanded upon and convey only simple opinions.
13-16	Responds well to stimulus, demonstrating good utilisation of content. Takes initiative/develops more elaborate responses. Conveys opinions without undue difficulty.
17-20	Excellent. Response to stimulus demonstrates very good understanding and utilisation of content. Clearly and fluently expresses wide range of opinions and attitudes.

Mark	Quality of language(AO3)
0	No rewardable language.
1-2	Consistently inaccurate language, including grammar. Offers only isolated examples of accurate language. Pronunciation impedes basic communication most of the time. Operates only in most basic structures. Rarely offers complete sentences.
3-4	Communicates main points despite high incidence of grammatical errors. Pronunciation inconsistent. Short main clause structures predominantly used. Inappropriate lexical items may impede communication at times.
5-6	Generally accurate grammar in simple basic language despite a fair number of significant errors. Pronunciation easy to understand with some inconsistency. Mostly predictable lexical items deployed.
7-8	Generally accurate grammar in straightforward language but errors made in more complex language. Pronunciation and intonation generally very good. Uses reasonably wide and mostly appropriate range of structure and lexis.
9-10	Very accurate grammar with pronunciation and intonation of a consistently high standard. Insignificant errors may occur. Deploys a wide range of structures and lexis as appropriate to stimuli.
